

Datos estructurados

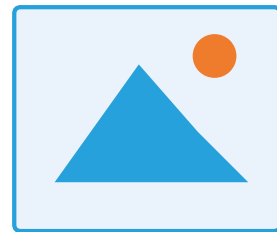

A 4x4 grid representing structured data. The top row consists of four teal-colored cells. The remaining three rows each consist of four white cells, with the first, third, and fourth cells in each row shaded light blue. This visualizes data organized into rows and columns, where each cell contains a single type of data.

filas y columnas · un tipo de dato por celda

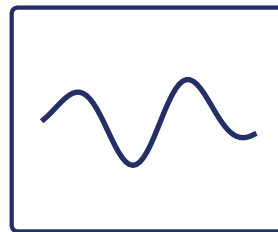

Datos no estructurados

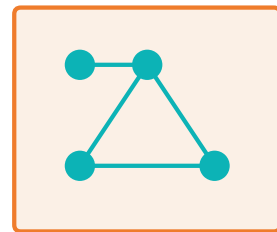

texto

imagen

audio

redes / texto libre